NATIONAL ARCHIVES MICROFILM PUBLICATIONS

INTRODUCTION

On the 74 rolls of this microfilm publication are reproduced the compiled records that give histories of Confederate military units. The compiled records consist of jacket-envelopes bearing the names of the units and titled "Captions and Record of Events." These jacket-envelopes typically contain (1) caption cards showing the exact captions of the muster rolls as copied and the certificate of the mustering officer verifying the accuracy of the rolls; and (2) record-of-events cards containing information relating to the stations, movements or activities of each unit or a part of it, and sometimes to its organization or composition, strength and losses, and disbandment. The amount of information contained on a card varies. Some include only date and name of station of the unit. Others give detailed accounts of the unit's operations and activities. These compiled records are part of the War Department Collection of Confederate Records, Record Group 109.

Because some records of the Confederate Army were lost or destroyed during the war and at its close, the compiled military histories of most units are incomplete. There are no record-of-events cards for a small number of State units that were mustered into Confederate service and for militia units that were never mustered into service.

The compilation of records showing service of Confederate military units was undertaken simultaneously with compilation of service records of Confederate soldiers. The work was begun in 1903 under the direction of Brig. Gen. Fred C. Ainsworth, head of the Record and Pension Office in the War Department. Abstracts were made from documents in the War Department's collection of Confederate records and from documents borrowed mostly from Southern States by the War Department in an effort to obtain as complete military histories of units as possible. The original muster rolls and returns were the principal sources of information abstracted on the caption cards and lists of officers envelopes, but rosters, payrolls, hospital registers, casualty lists, Union prison registers, casualty lists, Union prison registers and rolls, parole rolls, and inspection reports were also examined for this purpose. Abstracts were verified by separate comparison, and every precaution was taken to ensure their accuracy.

Some of the jacket-envelopes, particularly those titled "Captions," "Rolls," "Instructions," or "Information," do not contain card abstracts, but do contain information cards that serve as cross-references to records filed with other units. On the front of each jacket-envelope is a series of numbers that corresponds to the number on the back of each card in the jacket. The reverse side, which contains a number and a date stamp, was unless it contained additional information. The numbers were stamped on the cards for control purposes at the time the compiled records were prepared. Later, notations made on some jackets to indicate that clothing rolls of the units were extant. Card abstracts were prepared from information on these rolls and filed with compiled records of individual soldiers but not in the jacket-envelopes reproduced on this microfilm publication.

Preceding the jacket-envelopes of most units are empty envelopes on which are listed the names of officers of the unit or, occasionally, only the name of the commanding officer. The letter "C" and the numbers "1" and "2," which follow names of officers, indicate the grades of captain, first lieutenant, and second lieutenant, respectively. The lists often include dates on which units were called into service and mustered out; dates of deaths, promotions, resignations, or retirements of officers; and information relating to consolidations, transfers, disbandments, or other changes in the organization of units. A stamp reading "All rolls filed herewith" appears on some of the lists, but no rolls are now filed with the lists. Similarly, the notation "For references see inside," which appears on some lists, should be disregarded as there are now no reference sheets in the envelopes.

Lists of officers were prepared for many State militia units that were not mustered into service and for other organizations for which no rolls were found. These lists are filed under "Miscellaneous" and appear at the end of records of State units and at the end of records of units raised directly by the Confederacy. With a few exceptions no lists were prepared for units from North Carolina.

Most of the compiled records reproduced in this microfilm publication are arranged alphabetically by State, thereunder by type of unit (cavalry, artillery, and infantry), followed by reserve, militia, local defense, conscript, prison guard, instruction, or other organizations. The table of contents was prepared from caption cards; the information in parentheses or brackets consists of other names by which units were known and related information. The arrangement of compiled records for units raised directly or otherwise formed by the Confederate government is similar except that the latter units are not broken down by State.

The National Archives has compiled records of Confederate soldiers who served in units whose histories are reproduced in this microfilm publication. There are also card indexes to help locate the compiled service records of Confederate soldiers. All the records and the related indexes have been microfilmed.

The archivist responsible for the preparation of this microfilm publication is Geraldine N. Phillips.

RECORD OF EVENTS.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp contrast to the warm blanket I had been wrapped in. The air was crisp and clear, and I could see the snow-covered ground under my feet. The trees were bare, their branches reaching out like skeletal fingers against the white sky. I took a deep breath, feeling the cold air fill my lungs. It was a strange sensation, but I knew it was good. I had been told that the winter in this town was the best. Not too cold, not too hot. Just perfect. And I was here now, in the heart of it all. I looked up at the sky, where a few stars were beginning to appear. It was a beautiful sight, and I knew that this was the start of something new.
 A new beginning. A new life. A new chapter in my story. I smiled, feeling a sense of peace and contentment. I was home.

The Floyd Rifles left Macon Georgia on the night of the 20 day of April 1861 in order of P. P. Hinkley Secretary of War G. S. A. and arrived at Fort Mouth Va on the morning of the 23^d of said month. They were stationed on the day of their arrival at the Naval Hospital where they remained until the 26th when they were removed by order of Gen. Gwynne to Fort Norfolk and remained at that place until May 16th when they were removed by order of Gen. Gwynne to Slocum's Creek Cross Road on the 17th May morning to Seewell's Point and returned to the Cross Road on the 20th and remained there until June 10th when they removed to Seewell's Point in order of Gen. T. H. and are now encamped at that place with the other companies comprising the 2 Georgia Battalion.

The very first thing I did was to get out the map of the country and to see what the best route was to the place where the Indians were said to live. I then took the road which led to the place and after a long and hard ride I got to the place where the Indians lived. I then went to the place where the Indians lived and I found that they were very friendly and that they were very kind to me.

The first thing I noticed when I stepped
 out of the car was the cold. It was a sharp, biting cold that seemed to seep into my bones. I shivered as I walked toward the building, my hands tucked into my pockets. The air was thick with the scent of old books and the faint smell of coffee. I had heard that the library was a place of magic, a place where time stood still. Now I knew it was true. The moment I stepped inside, the world outside faded away.
 The shelves were tall and narrow, filled with books of every size and shape. The light was soft and warm, coming from small lamps that cast a golden glow over the pages. I found a small table in the corner, and I sat down, opening the first book I found. The words were old and strange, but they felt like a friend. I read for hours, the time passing so quickly that I didn't notice the sun setting outside. When I finally closed the book, the world was still there, but it felt like I had been to a different place. I walked back to the car, the cold air hitting me like a blanket.
 I knew I would come back.

RECORD OF EVENTS.

The 1st of July, 1862, was a day of great importance to the Confederate Army. It was the day when the Confederate Army, under the command of General Lee, defeated the Union Army, under the command of General McClellan, at the Battle of Gettysburg. This victory was a turning point in the war, and it showed that the Confederate Army was capable of standing up to the Union Army in a conventional battle. The Confederate Army was able to repulse the Union Army's attacks, and it was able to hold its ground. This was a great achievement for the Confederate Army, and it was a great blow to the Union Army.
The Confederate Army was able to maintain its position, and it was able to inflict heavy casualties on the Union Army.
This was a great victory for the

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a review of the literature on the topic of the role of the state in the development of the economy. It is found that the state has played a significant role in the development of the economy in many countries, particularly in the case of developing countries. The state has been able to mobilize resources, create infrastructure, and provide social services, all of which have contributed to economic growth and development.

except as follows:

RECORD OF EVENTS.

This Regiment was stationed at Camp Hazance near the Maconburg Turnpike Road about six miles from Richmond in the advance line of entrenchments from 1st to 27th June. On the 3rd this Regiment was on picket duty and were attacked by a scouting party when a severe skirmish was engaged on the left of the post in which the sergeant was severely killed. Thirteen (13) wounded and one prisoner captured by us and also was done in the assault on picket duty we were attacked by the enemy on

L. C. Smith

early in the morning and a considerable skirmishing ensued which was kept up all day and in the evening became general along the river when the Regiment charged the enemy & driving him back with great slaughter.
Our loss was seven killed thirteen missing and forty (40) wounded. This engagement has been heretofore reported to Brigade and Headquarters.
On the 2nd the Regiment left Camp and marched in pursuit of the enemy and on the 3rd was present but not engaged in the action at Oak Cross Farm. The actions and skirmishing in which the Regiment was engaged during the month were reported to Brigade and Headquarters and were received with notice or acknowledgment thereon.
